Payment Policy Statement

Payment is due at time of services rendered unless a PPO, Champus, Medicare, or a Managed Care Program that we bill directly insures you. All deductibles, co-payments, and services not covered by your plan are your responsibility. An annual finance charge of 12%, per California statue, may be charged on all accounts over 60 days past due. There will be a $45 charge on all returned checks. Should collections be necessary, the patient shall pay the Provider, on demand, all costs, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred in collecting payment due under this agreement.

I plan to settle my bill today by circle one: Cash MasterCard Visa Personal Check

I have read and agree to the above payment policy and I understand that I may be charged a cancellation fee of $75 for missed appointments not cancelled without 24 hours notice.

_____ Initial

Authorization:

I hereby consent to any necessary medical treatment/physical examination required by the minor or myself named above for whom I am legally responsible.

Assignment:

I permit payment directly to The Center for Health and Wellbeing, for any benefits due to the Doctors for the services rendered. I understand that I am financially responsible for all charges, whether or not covered by my insurance company.

Medical Records:

Authorization is hereby granted for release of any information required to process this claim. A copy of this authorization is as valid as the original. Regardless of any claim pending, you will receive periodic statements if your account has an outstanding balance. We cannot accept responsibility for collecting your insurance claim or for negotiating a settlement on a disputed claim.

Prescription Dispensing Disclosure:

Our office offers, as a service to our patients, dispensing of some prescribed medications. Please note that you have a choice between obtaining the prescription from our office and having us provide you with a prescription that can be filled at the pharmacy of your choice.

Notice of Privacy Practices

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

This notice takes effect on June 14, 2007 and remains in effect until we replace it.

OUR PLEDGE REGARDING YOUR MEDICAL INFORMATION

The privacy of your medical information is important to us. We understand that your medical information is personal and we are committed to protecting it. We create a record of the care and services you receive at our organization. We need this record to provide you with quality care and to comply with certain legal requirements. This notice will tell you about the ways we may use and share medical information about you. We also describe your rights and certain duties we have regarding the use and disclosure of medical information.

Our Legal Duty

Law requires us to:

1. Follow the terms of the notice that is now in effect.
2. Keep your medical information private.
3. Give you this notice describing our legal duties, privacy practices, and your rights regarding medical information.

We Have the right to:

1. Change our privacy practices and the terms of this notice at any time, provided that the law permits the changes.
2. Make the changes in our privacy practices and the new terms of our notice effective for all medical information that we keep, including information previously created or received before the changes.

Notice of change to privacy practices:

1. Before we make an important change in our privacy practice, we will change this notice and make the new notice available upon request.

USE AND DISCLOSURE OF YOUR MEDICAL INFORMATION

The following section describes different ways that we use and disclose medical information. Not every use or disclosure will be listed. However, we have listed all of the different ways we are permitted to use and disclose medical information. We will not use or disclose your medical information for any purpose not listed below without your specific written authorization. Any specific written authorization you provide may be revoked at any time by writing to us.

FOR TREATMENT: We may use medical information about you to provide you with medical treatment or services. We my disclose medical information about you to doctors, nurses, medical assistants, technicians, medical students, or other people who are taking care of you. We may also share medical information to your other health care providers to assist them in treating you.

FOR PAYMENT: We may use and disclose your medical information for payment purposes.

FOR HEALTH CARE OPERATIONS: We may use and disclose your medical information for our health care operations. This might include measuring and improving quality, evaluating the performance of employees, conducting training programs, and getting the accreditation, certificates, licenses, and credentials we need to serve you.

NOTIFICATION: Medical information to notify: a family member, your personal representative or another person responsible for your care. We will get your permission before we share medical information, or give you the opportunity to refuse permission. In case of emergency, and you are unable to give permission we will share only the health information that is directly necessary for your health care, according to our professional judgement. We will also use our professional judgement to make decisions in your best interest about allowing someone to pick up medicine, medical supplies, x-ray or medical information about you.

APPOINTMENT REMINDERS AND HEALTH-RELATED INFORMATION:
Covered entity may contact the individual to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to the individual.

RESEARCH IN LIMITED CIRCUMSTANCES: Medical information for research purposes in limited circumstances where the research has been approved by a review board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to insure the privacy of medical information.

USES AND DISCLOSURES FOR WHICH NO PERMISSION IS REQUIRED:

PUBLIC HEALTH REPORTING: As required by law, we may disclose your medical information to public health or legal authorities charged with preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability, including child abuse or neglect. We may also disclose your medical information to persons subject to jurisdiction of the Food and Drug Administration for purposes of reporting adverse events associated with product defects or problems, to enable product recalls, repairs or replacements. To track products, or to conduct activities required by the Food and Drug Administration. We may also, when we are authorized by law to do so, notify a person who may have been exposed to a communicable disease or other wise be at risk of contracting or spreading a disease or condition.

VICTIMS OF ABUSE, NEGLECT, OR DOMESTIC VIOLENCE: We may disclose medical information to appropriate authorities if we reasonably believe that you are a possible victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence or the possible victim of other crimes. We may share your medical information if it is necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health or safety or the health or safety of others. We may share medical information when necessary to help law enforcement officials capture a person who has admitted to being part of a crime or has escaped from legal custody.

WORKERS COMPENSATION: We may disclose health information when authorized and necessary to comply with laws relating to workers compensation or other similar programs.

HEALTH OVERSIGHT ACTIVITIES: We may disclose medical information to an agency providing health oversight for oversight activities authorized by law, including audits, civil, administrative, or criminal investigations or proceedings, inspections, licensure or disciplinary actions, or other authorized activities.
